Product description

Pandarama thermo bottle

The reusable stainless steel thermal insulated bottle is the perfect product for people who need to keep their favorite drinks warm while traveling or during the working day. Made of stainless steel, the bottle is not only solid, but also resistant to mechanical damage and corrosion.

Thanks to its thermal insulation design, the bottle keeps the temperature of cold and hot drinks for a long time. During the day you can enjoy your favorite tea, coffee or juice without worrying about cooling or overheating.

The insulated bottle is suitable for both hot and cold drinks. You can use it to hold cold water or iced tea on a hot day, or hot coffee or tea on a cooler day.

If you are looking for a solid, practical and convenient way to store your favorite drinks, the insulated bottle is the perfect gadget for you.
