The creator and founder of HighOnLove had an idea... After many years of research and traveling the world, Angela was able to discover the best ingredients from plants that enrich our lives... and thus HighOnLove was born.

Created from luxurious blends of the highest quality hemp seeds and essential oils, HighOnLove products are an expression of the highest level of quality and cosmetic standards. The moment when the creator experienced a kind of epiphany was during a trip to the Far East, where she was researching cosmetic blends. It was there that she had her first epiphany, understanding that the mind and body connect in a much more intimate way when we mix the groundbreaking properties of hemp oil with pure aromas and a hint of romance. HighOnLove oil blends are a breakthrough for romantic ecstasy, bringing a whole new dimension of sensuality to skin care, reshaping intimacy and pampering everyone who uses them. Because we know that you
