EAN	8714273949523

Product description

Submissionmask - black

The mask with holes for the mouth and eyes is designed to be pulled over the entire head. The fabric allows a small amount of light to pass through, impairing eyesight and stimulating other senses. The shiny black hood can be worn both by her and by him. The thin, lightweight fabric allows you to breathe and hear slapping sounds. The best part is that your subject can see everything and you have access to their mouth!
